Parsonage Farm Nursery and Infant School

Year 2	Art – Sculpture – Andy Goldsworthy	Autumn 2

Knowledge

- Andy Goldsworthy is a British sculptor and photographer.
- Andy Goldsworthy's sculptures are made using natural resources, such as stone, sand, water, ice, snow, leaves, flowers and berries.
- His art is known as land art and is created in fields, forests, lakes and cities.
- His artwork does not last forever and can disappear quickly.
- He lives in Scotland and still creates sculptures.
- Natural objects are things that are found in the world around us and are not man made.
- Adding white to a colour is known as a tint and makes the colour lighter.

Safeguarding

- Beware of environment when collecting natural objects.
- Consider allergies of children when using clay. eczema.
- Children to wear aprons when using clay.
- Supervise use of tools when carving soft clay.

Prior Knowledge (Year 1)

- Creating clay sculptures.
- Observing and drawing patterns.
- Primary and secondary colours.
- Colour mixing

Skills

- Observe and draw with increasing accuracy, looking closely to represent lines, shape and texture.
- Make a variety of tones of one colour.
- Create a piece of land art using natural resources.
- Manipulate clay, creating shapes and pattern with hands and tools.

Key Vocabulary

- sculpture
- land art
- natural objects

